

Suspect Arrested in Dec. 1 Murder of Seaman

West Palm Beach police yesterday arrested a man in Miami wanted in the shooting death of a 26-year-old man Dec. 1 in front of a motel on the 3700-block of Broadway, a spokesman said.

Freddie Battle, 26, was arrested on second-degree murder charges at a residence on NW 74th Street in Miami by Capt. Marvin Mann and Detective Sgt. Rick Bradshaw, police said. The detectives learned of the address on a tip.

Battle, whose address is unknown, is accused of shooting Harold Kennedy, a seaman.
